

The book - a method Ranc

Written by врач невролог А.А.Пономаренко

This book was created by our small team in response to the patient's request that to be able to get acquainted with the site NEVROLOGICA materials not only the Internet but also in the traditional way. The book can be read to friends, you can give, to share the knowledge acquired. The site can be destroyed, because, as virtual reality, he is very vulnerable. Book object material, so it is more durable. In it you will find not only my assumptions about the cause of disease, but also reviews of physicians and patients about the new Russian method of treatment. People who turn to me for help, often ask why a method almost no one knows. I think that this book will help you to gain knowledge and help as many as possible of those in need.
